

• Is Used: B = magnetic field, A = area, N = number of turns is the coil, q = charge, l = length of current carrying conductor, G = Galvanometer constant, r = radius of the common bility of free space,  $I_s$  = current sensitivity, k = restoring torque per unit twist, R = resistance of galvanometer, m = pole strength, a = perpendicular distance